Dear Parent/Guardian

Salisbury Museum Workshop – Friday 13 October 2017

As part of your child's GCSE Art course pupils are required to visit and work with museums and galleries to observe and document research as part of the course.

We have been very lucky to be offered a FREE workshop and tour of the Sir Terry Pratchett Exhibition at the Salisbury museum on Friday 13 October 2017. These sessions are designed to help pupils maximise their gallery visit and will be used towards their first coursework worth 60% of their overall grade.

We will leave school at 9.30am in time for the 10am session and return to school at 2.40 pm in time for lesson 6. The pupils will need to bring a packed lunch; please no glass bottles and uniform will be required to be worn.

It is important that the pupils on this course gain as much artist knowledge and technical experience as they can. Your support with this is greatly appreciated.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me via reception or directly on kma@sjcs.org.uk

Yours sincerely

Miss K Mallows
